

Wheathampstead History Society

Bulletin no. 14, October 2018

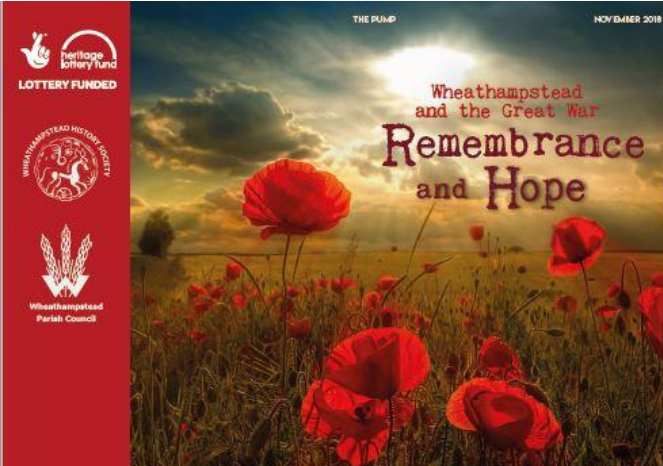

Wheathampstead commemorates the end of the Great War

Wheathampstead during the Great War 1914-1920

Wheathampstead History Society invites you to their free exhibition Saturday 10th & Sunday 11th November in the Memorial Hall, Marford Road, Wheathampstead, 10am - 6pm

Do come along and discover more about the experiences of our village residents, at home and on service, and how they adapted to war and peace.

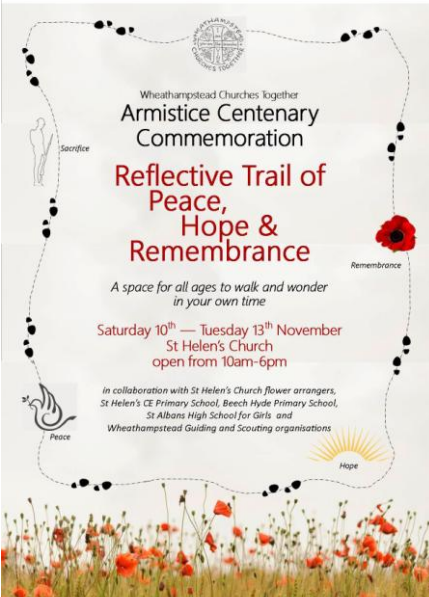

THE PUMP NOVEMBER 2018

Wheathampstead and the Great War
Remembrance and Hope

History Society exhibition

Special edition of The Pump

Wheathampstead Churches Together
Armistice Centenary Commemoration
Reflective Trail of Peace, Hope & Remembrance

A space for all ages to walk and wonder in your own time

Saturday 10th — Tuesday 13th November
St Helen's Church
open from 10am-6pm

In collaboration with St Helen's Church flower arrangers,
St Helen's CE Primary School, Beech Hyde Primary School, St Albans High School for Girls, and Wheathampstead Guiding and Scouting organisations

Wheathampstead Churches Together

Armistice Centenary Commemoration Service Wheathampstead War Memorial and subsequent short service in St Helen's Church, Wheathampstead

Sunday 11th November 2018
10.45am

with the reading of the Roll of Honour, the release of Poppies from the Bell Tower and the Lowering of the Standard.

St Helen's bell ringers are joining the national ring for Remembrance at 7.05pm on 11.11.18

The Wheathampstead History Society's exhibition 'Wheathampstead during the Great War 1914-1920' is open to all at Marford Hall, Saturday and Sunday, 10am-6pm

A grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund enabled the Society to recruit volunteers to research Wheathampstead during and after the Great War, to produce a commemorative edition of The Pump, and to put on an exhibition over Armistice weekend.

Wheathampstead Churches Together

Next Meeting

Members' Evening: 7.30 Wednesday 21 November. This is your opportunity to tell us about some aspect of local history or to show and talk about an object of historical interest. If you would like to take part, please contact us via email (see below) or on 07718 068575.

www.wheathampsteadheritage.org.uk/history-society.asp email: whs@wheathampstead.org.uk

